Dear Parents and Carers

Teacher for 4M

Mrs McGregor will finish work for this year on Friday 2 June to have her baby. This is wonderful news for Katie and her husband, James.

Interviews for her replacement were held last week and I am pleased to let you know that Miss Zoe Tsiouris (Mon, Tues, Wed) and Mr Damien Montessin (Thurs, Fri) are Mrs McGregor's replacement for the remainder of the year. Both teachers are very excited and looking forward to commencing work in 4M.

Mrs McGregor has been at St Jude's since the start of 2016 and in this period of time she has made a very positive impression on her students, their parents and staff members. She is a quality teacher and it is unfortunate from an administrator's point of view that she is leaving us mid-year. But that is the selfish way of looking at it, because I know you are thinking as I am and have nothing but the best wishes for the McGregors as they embark on this most wonderful journey of parenthood with all its blessings and with all its challenges.

I would encourage you all to express your thanks to Mrs McGregor for the fine job she has done this year. Both new teachers are eager to keep the class routines and structures in place when they take over. To facilitate this, a detailed handover will take place so that there is as little disruption to the class as possible. I am sure you will make Miss Tsiouris and Mr Montessin feel very welcome at St Jude's.

Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Wishing you well

Peter Galvin
