Dear Parents and Carers

Teacher for 6S

Ms Sallecchia will finish work for this year on Friday 10th August to have her baby. This is wonderful news for Angela and her husband, Peter.

I am pleased to let you know that Miss Brianna O'Brien is Ms Sallecchia's replacement for the remainder of the year. Miss O'Brien is very excited and looking forward to commencing work in 6S. I know many of you will remember Miss O'Brien.

Ms Sallecchia has been at St Jude's since 2009 and in this period of time has made a very positive impression on her students, their parents and staff members. She is a quality teacher and it is unfortunate from an administrator's point of view that she is leaving us mid-year. But that is the selfish way of looking at it, because I know you are thinking as I am and have nothing but best wishes for Ms Sallecchia and Peter as they embark on this most wonderful journey of parenthood with all its blessings and with all its challenges.

I would encourage you all to express your thanks to Ms Sallecchia for the fine job she has done this year. Miss O'Brien is eager to keep the class routines and structures in place when she takes over. To facilitate this, a detailed handover has been taking place so that there is as little disruption to the class as possible. I am sure you will make Miss O'Brien feel very welcome.

Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Wishing you well

Dan Fulton
