Dear Parents and Carers

As notified in the last two newsletters, our canteen manager will be away for six weeks from the start of term two. We have looked at a number of possible alternatives which might allow for a limited canteen service but in the end it was too difficult to put alternative arrangements in place.

After much discussion, it has been decided to close the canteen for this period of time. I am reluctant to do this but I believe it is necessary.

So this means that there will be no canteen service for the first six weeks of term two.

The meal deal lunch as part of our cross country carnival on 2 May will go ahead as planned.

Wishing you well.

Peter Galvin
Principal
