Dear Parents and Carers

Teacher for 1B

Mrs Bailey will finish work for this year tomorrow, 6 July to have her baby. This is wonderful news for Liz and her husband, Simon.

I am pleased to let you know that Miss Zoe Tsiouris is Mrs Bailey's replacement for the remainder of the year. Miss Tsiouris is very excited and looking forward to commencing work in 1B. I know many of you have already met her in parent teacher meetings in recent times.

Mrs Bailey has been at St Jude's since the start of 2017 and in this period of time she has made a very positive impression on her students, their parents and staff members. She is a quality teacher and it is unfortunate from an administrator's point of view that she is leaving us mid-year. But that is the selfish way of looking at it, because I know you are thinking as I am and have nothing but best wishes for the Bailey's as they embark on this most wonderful journey of parenthood (for the second time) with all its blessings and with all its challenges.

I would encourage you all to express your thanks to Mrs Bailey for the fine job she has done this year. Miss Tsiouris is eager to keep the class routines and structures in place when she takes over. To facilitate this, a detailed handover has been taking place so that there is as little disruption to the class as possible. I am sure you will make Miss Tsiouris feel very welcome.

Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Wishing you well

Peter Galvin
